Proprietary Rights of Nilkamal Roy

VERIFIED 2026

1. Ownership of NKQ Tools

The brand NKQ Tools, including its unique 3-letter designation, all graphical user interface (GUI) designs, and technical architecture, is the sole intellectual property of Nilkamal Roy. This document establishes the intent to protect the brand from unauthorized commercial rebranding.

2. Software Licensing (MIT)

The underlying source code is released under the MIT License. This allows for community contribution and personal use, provided that the original copyright notice remains intact in all distributions. Modification does not equal ownership.

3. Usage Restrictions

No party is authorized to use the name "NKQ Tools" or "NKQ Hub" for any project that is not an official branch of the original repository. Any "fork" or derivative work must clearly state its origin and use a different primary brand name.

4. Digital Evidence & Provenance

The creation date, author identity, and development history are cryptographically secured on global version control servers (GitHub). This data serves as primary evidence of ownership in any digital property dispute.
